The Winter advances. so merry and cold,
And Christmas is coming, I know;
I can hear old Santa Claus muffling his feet
In : andals of sofiest snow,
He is bringing his bountiful stock of toys,
From the banks of the Rhine and the Rhone,

Walk in! Here are ribbons and feathers and flowers,
Trimmings of every kind;
Reckdes and ribbons and feathers and flowers,
Reckdes and ribbons worsted goods,
And one to the season of the classes and bandker robbets, daintily white,
And a counter de robed to gloves,
Of every color and every price,
Which the ladies denominate "loves."

Down stairs—this surely is fairy land;
Toys, and toys, and toys,
And milions and milions of pretty things
For pleasing the girls and boys;
Up stairs—through crowds of customers, there
See every kind of a doll,
Lying in cases, fast asleep,
But ready to wake at a call.

Wee little babies, dimpled and fair,
Darky boys, joily and fat,
Ladies in flounces and crinoline,
Skaters with mittens and fat,
Remember the little ones waiting at home,
Watching the snowlinkes white,
And remember the toys at Ridley's were made
For keeping their dear eyes bright.
